

Secure Media Management

Protect your most important asset, your data.

Stay compliant and efficient with TIMG

How efficient is your data management process?

Businesses operate most efficiently when records, financial data, and correspondence are securely stored, organised, and easily accessible. TIMG increases your productivity by saving time spent handling physical and digital storage.

Peace of mind

TIMG's media management service mitigates your risk of data loss and privacy breach. Offsite storage in our strictly controlled and secure environment, gives your business the confidence that your confidential data is always protected and available on demand.

- ★ All TIMG staff members are current holders of a Certificate of Approval

TIMG customises your solution. Our security-vetted team will manage and store your media. We also take care of destruction, data restoration, data conversion, and degaussing whenever needed.

Why media management?

TIMG provides an essential service to those who are serious about preserving the integrity of their company data. This data is highly confidential, containing facts and figures about you and your clients.

Consider the risks to your business if company data was lost:

- What would this mean to your business reputation?
- How would your clients view your company?

These are important questions to ask yourself as there are unthinkable consequences to not backing up your media.

Why TIMG?

TIMG maintains the highest New Zealand and international compliance standards in the industry. Our 96% client satisfaction rating demonstrates our commitment to continuous service improvement. We guarantee your data is available on demand with 24/7 access online, precise tracking and secure storage.
