

Secure Distribution Services

More than just logistics

Some businesses have valuable material that needs to be protected, managed and distributed in a safe and secure manner: think reference books, marketing collateral, art and industry specific items such as drug testing kits. TIMG's distribution services provide secure logistics management and storage of your valuable and sensitive items along with that little bit extra to help you distribute articles that may require a little bit more handling than you want to manage within your own business.

THE INFORMATION MANAGEMENT GROUP

Is this service right for me?

- Do you require a logistics solution with high levels of security to store and distribute your valuable items?
- Do your teams require a high level of visibility throughout the distribution supply chain?
- Is it critical that your product supply chain is managed in accordance with embargoes, security processes or product validation?
- Do you require short or long-term storage?
- Do you require assistance with assembly and distribution of promotional collateral, membership packs or customer gift packs?
- Do you want to reduce the costs of insurance, logistics and storage for your at-risk, valuable items?

If you answered YES to any of the above, contact TIMG's secure distribution service today for a FREE, no-obligation consultation.

Solution benefits

High security storage with security cleared personnel:

- TIMG carries a Company Licence to run a business in the private security industry, as defined in the Private Security Personnel and Private Investigators Act. As such, all TIMG staff carry a current Certificate of Approval and have been security cleared by the Ministry of Justice. TIMG also maintains strict security, handling, and environmental protocols that comply fully with Section 16 of the Private Investigation and Security Guards Act.

Database management:

- TIMG's secure customer interface enables seamless online management of product. Customers have a high level of visibility throughout the supply chain with our comprehensive reporting.

Customisable solution:

- Not sure if we can do what you need? Ask us, and if we cant already, we will customise a solution for you.

When you have valuable items that need to be securely managed or distributed, leave it up to TIMG
